

MUDDY CREEK PEDIATRICS

Patient Health Information Disclosure

The HIPAA privacy rule was created to give individuals the right to restrict the release of their medical information and to designate to whom their information may be given.

Please list children in household under the age of 18:

---

---

It is okay to contact me in the following manner regarding:

Recall Notices (circle one):

Text to Cell                      Home Phone                      Primary

Email General Practice Notices (circle one):

Text to Cell                      Home Phone                      Primary Email

Patient Portal Notices (circle one):

Text to Cell                      Primary Email

Appointment Reminders (circle one):

Text to Cell                      Home Phone                      Primary Email

PHI (Patient Health Information) can be released to the following:

---

Parent /Guardian Signature _____ Date _____

Printed name _____

The privacy rule requires that physicians take reasonable steps to protect PHI and limit the use and release of this information. These rules do not apply to requests made by the individuals regarding the disclosure of their information. Healthcare records must reflect all PHI release.